

MA PROGRAMMES in POLITICAL SCIENCE

DEMOCRACY AND GOVERNANCE

Integrates empirical and theoretical knowledge about democracy and governance, the essential parameters of political development in the contemporary world, introducing also the Estonian experience in E-democracy.

EUROPEAN UNION – RUSSIA STUDIES

Provides the analytical tools and personal skills for grasping the developments in the European Union, Russia and countries in the EU-Russia proximity from a multidisciplinary perspective.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND REGIONAL STUDIES

Combines the study of international relations and political practice with in-depth regional specialisation in European studies, Russian and Eurasian studies, or Baltic Sea Region studies.

BALTIC SEA REGION STUDIES

Focuses on the analysis of politics and societies around the Baltic Sea, one of the most economically dynamic, technologically advanced and culturally diverse regions in Europe.

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent
- Proof of English language proficiency

APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 15, 2016

Language of instruction: English
Programme duration: 2 years

SCHOLARSHIPS AND TUITION FEES:

- Tuition-waiver scholarships available
- Tuition fee 3200-3400 EUR/year

"All our programmes offer a unique study experience. We have a broad international background and multinational perspective on the issues and skills we teach, as well as students from all over the world. At the same time, Tartu is a quintessential university town – everything you need is in one place."

Vello A. Pettai,
Professor of Comparative Politics

WHY University of Tartu?

• UT is ranked among the TOP 3% of universities in the world (THE World University Rankings 2013–2014);

- International students rate Estonia as the #1 place to stay (Erasmus Student Network Survey);
- Since 1989, Estonia has been in the centre of democratic, economic and geopolitical change in Eastern Europe. UT has played an active role in charting these developments;
- All programmes offer interactive and innovative learning methods and advanced study facilities. Students can take advantage of Erasmus agreements to study abroad;
- UT offers modern residence halls and affordable accommodation.